

From: Andrew Griffin
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/24/02 12:26am
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I've just read through the proposed settlement several times. I must say I believe it is weak, ineffective, and entirely too late. The proposed penalties might have been relevant a few years ago, but no longer. Microsoft has had judgments and remedies levied against it before, and has simply gone on doing whatever they feel they can get away with, and coming up with new and innovative ways to explain why "this is different".

Thanks
Andrew Griffin
Dallas, Texas

--

Andrew Griffin
Theplanet.com Internet services, Inc.
214.752.5581 x107
agriffin@theplanet.com
1950 Stemmons Frwy
Dallas, TX 75207
There is no "I" in TEAM.
But there is one in "blimp"!!!